MONITORING & MANAGING CHILDREN'S SCREEN TIME SOME SOUND ADVICE FROM YSAFE'S JORDAN FOSTER

The Rotary Club of Cambridge is delighted that on Wednesday 31 October Jordan Foster, CEO of ySafe, will be the guest speaker at the Club's final Schools' Programme talk of the 2018 academic year.

Jordan, the recipient of the 2018 WA Young Achiever Award, will be talking about monitoring and controlling the time children spend on their iPhones, iPads, laptops, etc.

Jordan is a clinical psychologist and is the founder of ySafe, now a nationally recognised household name in the field of children's computer and mobile phone (over) usage. Jordan has extensive clinical expertise in working with children, helping them to overcome their problematic technology use and addictions.

Jordan is a sought after e-safety advisor who provides consultations to schools throughout Australia, overseeing empirically-derived safety education sessions and giving assistance in identifying sound management strategies.

Attend Jordan's talk to get advice about putting an end to those ongoing and inevitable arguments about too much time being spent on digital devices.
